5. Public Recognition

A. Request for Waiver - Randy Gray, Hurley Car Care

Mr. Randy Gray, Hurley Car Care, addressed the Board regarding his request for Waiver for Hurley Car Care to connect to JCUA services as directed by MDEQ during the permit renewal process for Hurley Car Care, as water and wastewater is now available in the area; which was not available when the permit was originally issued. Mr. Gray stated that he is concerned that JCUA's water will not meet the standard necessary to prevent spotting; as well as the financial burden connecting to JCUA services will cause; which could result in him having to shut down the car wash. Mr. Page explained to Mr. Gray that the JCUA did not contact MDEQ, JCUA only responded to MDEQ communication as part of the permit renewal process, stating that both water and wastewater service are now available. Following the presentation and discussion, the Board tabled this item to the next Board Meeting on Tuesday, November 12, 2019, pending JCUA testing the well water currently used by Hurley Car Care and water that would be provided by JCUA.
